SYNOPSIS

Hans and Grete (no, not the ones from the fairy tale) have to prepare a very important presentation for school. If they do it well, they will be rewarded by their parents – hopefully, they will get a dog! However, they are behind with the assignment and in the middle of it all, granddad calls. He has a big problem. A vampire is bugging him and he needs Hans and Grete's help.

The twins once more have to come up with a crazy plan. This time they need Mum's falafel, a super soaker and some special water from the church.

But nothing goes as planned. Nothing at all.
