SYNOPSIS

I can remember the pulsating rhythm of the ground and your running steps and your hand that slipped out of mine. I can remember when you jumped. That I remember.

All I Remember is a psychological drama where the truth continuously shows itself from different angles.

Freja has lost her best friend, Malou, who jumped out in front a train. While the police investigate the death, Freja returns to her everyday life where everyone is puzzled about why Malou took her own life. As the only witness, Freja gets a lot of questions that force her to think about the night when Malou died. And about their friendship in the time leading up to her death.

The more she remembers, the more she doubts how well she actually knew her friend. And as the police dig deeper and deeper, there are several inconsistencies.

What actually happened with Malou on the tracks?
