SYNOPSIS

Bastian's parents have decided that Bastian should get to know some of his new schoolmates - so they send him to something as terrifying as a summer camp. And he'll even have to spend the night there... without Cotty!

When Bastian arrives at the forest cabin, it's exactly as bad as he feared, and Bastian just wants to go home and sleep in his own bed. But when a stuffed rabbit that looks suspiciously like Cotty steals one of the other boys' glasses, Bastian, Bente and the nearsighted boy must set off on an epic adventure to get them back. And maybe that's exactly what Bastian needs to overcome his homesickness.

Illustrated by Sofie Lind Mesterton.
