Berta in the Park

Berta i parken

A lovely picture book about losing your way, about being found again and about meeting the dog, Berta, who has also lost her way.

Zakiya Ajmi is a widely celebrated debut author. She was nominated for the Nordic Literature Council's Children's Book Prize in 2022 and shortlisted for the Cultural Ministry's Children's Book Author Prize.

Siri Melchior has already proved that her illustration style travels, her books having been published in Germany and Spain.

SYNOPSIS

Berta and mum don't have anything particular planned for today. They are only going for a walk in the park to get a bit of fresh air. But in the park, you never know what might happen.

Berta in the Park forms part of a series of picture books, written by Zakiya Ajmi and illustrated by Siri Melchior.

REVIEWS

"It's one of those completely ordinary days, where you don't have a lot of plans, where suddenly everything ends up being very eventful. The book shows that you do not have to travel to an exotic place to experience a lot. Gorgeous story with the loveliest drawings in delicious colours about the charming and adventurous girl, Berta." – (Lektørdtalelse (Library review))
