SYNOPSIS

Birk and Thorbjørn are friends, even if they are quite different. They often play together. Also today, when they decide to build a den. They are having a good time. Until someone turns up who thinks that building a den and being friends means something completely different. But the friends in the end decide to show him that it doesn't.

With lovely illustrations by Hanne Kvist.

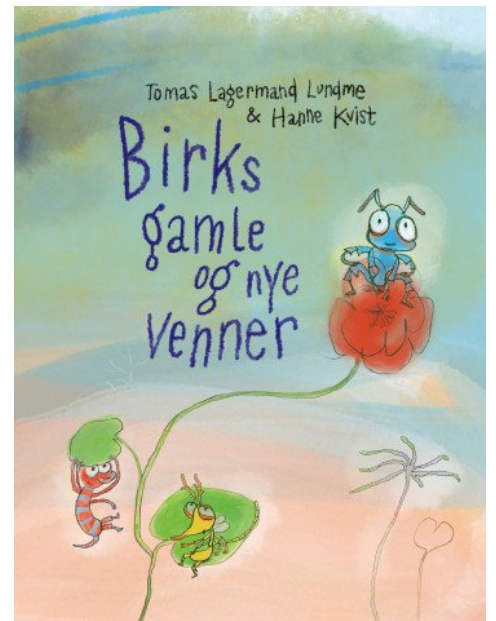

Birk's Old and New Friends

Birks gamle og nye venner

A story about place and displacement in an insect community in the middle of a big and sometimes impossible world.

Tomas Lagermand Lundme writes engagingly about first love and LGBT issues.
