Carla Cat is going to Move (2)

Karla Kat skal flytte (2)

The second book in a cute easy-read series for the smallest children. Including fun drawings inside the text, so the child can replace the drawings with the correct words as you read. The words are printed below each drawing and in the dictionary at the front and back of the book. Two books are already published in the series, and two more are planned.

Birgitte Ahlmann is a Danish illustrator and teacher of visual arts, with degrees from the Danish School of Design and the School of Visual Arts N.Y.

SYNOPSIS

Carla Cat is moving to a new house away from her old friends. "It's just on the other side of the forest," says her father. And so they start packing moving boxes.

With text written by debut author, Maiken Skovmøller Ísberg, who writes about key events in small children's lives: like starting school, moving houses, getting a smaller sibling and experiencing the first loose tooth.

REVIEWS

"Two cute books about Carla Cat, which invite you to cozy reading moments, where you can be helped to read the stories. Inviting and colorful drawings support the stories." – (Danish Library Centre (DBC))
