

Dara McAnulty

Diary of a Young Naturalist

Winner of the 2020 Wainwright Prize for Nature Writing, longlisted for the Baillie Gifford Prize, and with 17 translation sales concluded, this is a timeless gem of a book by a very young talent.

Babel-Bridge is proud to have helped UK publisher, Little Toller Books, conclude 17 translation sales for this wonderful book. However, as of 1st November, all unsold rights are handled by the author's new agent, Curtis Brown in London.

SYNOPSIS

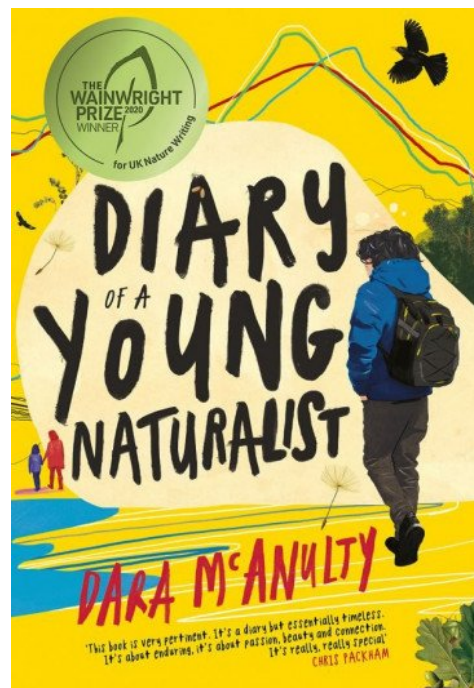

Diary of a Young Naturalist chronicles the turning of 15-year-old Dara McAnulty's world. From spring and through a year in his home patch in Northern Ireland, Dara spent the seasons writing. These vivid, evocative and moving diary entries about his connection to wildlife and the way he sees the world are raw in their telling. Diary of a Young Naturalist portrays Dara's intense connection to the natural world, and his perspective as a teenager juggling exams and friendships alongside a life of campaigning.
