Fanni's Black Book (9)

Fannis sorte bog (9)

Fanni's Black Book is the ninth in a series of 10 small books, about the imaginative play of Fanni. Currently nominated for one of the prestigious prizes at the 28. Biennale of Illustrations Bratislava and sold in translation to China Mainland and South Korea.

Inger Tobiasen is one of the best-known Danish illustrators of children's books – with her recognisable style, she catches the sentiments of children beautifully and she has provided artwork for many books, also by other authors.

SYNOPSIS

Fanni finds a book. She opens it and goes into it, into the black darkness. Here she meets a number of characters she knows from fairy tales and stories and children's songs. In the dark, she also finds a keyhole that the light shines through; she draws a door around the keyhole, opens the door and goes out into the light. Here she finds a book and wants to open it....

REVIEWS

"A reader reported that her 5-year-old child suffers from high-functioning autism. This is the first time he has read a book in its entirety and read 5 titles at a time. Our editor felt sincerely happy. Thank you very much for your creativity and work. Somewhere in the world, there is a child who is happy because of reading your series. It is a very remarkable achievement." – (Note to the author from her Chinese publisher: Beijing Yutian Hanfeng Book Co., Ltd)
