SYNOPSIS

A mad scientist, haunted by the loss of his wife and child, creates a Frankenstein's monster-like creature, which he names Stine. When the unhappy scientist commits suicide, Stine is left all alone in a world, where not everyone is open towards those who are different. We follow Stine in their search for a place where they belong. Will they find a friend who accepts them for who they are?

"B-b... but are you a boy or a girl?"

"Maybe I am neither. Maybe I am just ... me!"
