Kitty Poo (8) Birds, Bees and a fat Baby called Cupid

Møgmis (8) bien, blomsten og en fed baby ved navn Amor

The eighth book in the super entertaining, slightly grotesque and rather gross graphic novel/comic about friendship and enmity. For the teenager Ziggie and his cunning cat, Kitty Poo, love each other. Or love to hate each other.

Sophie Souid is an award-winning Danish children's book author known for her great humorous writing.

Thomas Hjorthaab is a well-known Danish children's book illustrator whose art style is known to be funny, punk and bursting with emotion.

SYNOPSIS

You can get hit by a lot in life. For example, a bus. Or Cupid's arrow. The latter can lead to both sweet music and butterflies in the stomach, but can also definitely be the cause of inflamed flesh wounds and broken hearts. (Just ask Ziggie, who has tried both. Mostly the former, but definitely the latter too). But even though the shitty cat, Kitty Poo, has experience with all kinds of firearms, it is still completely new to be in the shooting line.

The birds and the bees and all the love gods of the world had no idea what they had started!

Friendship and unity are essential in this book, where in addition to another brilliant Kitty Poo story, we get a new interpretation of "Little Red Riding Hood and the Wolf". The story is a mix of regular comic book pages and text with illustrations.
