SYNOPSIS

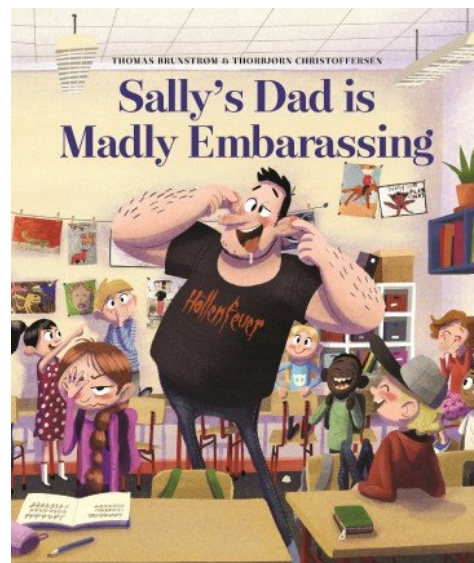

Sally's dad is actually quite a good dad, Sally thinks. There's just one thing, really: he sometimes makes her so incredibly embarrassed. That includes the times when he plays football with the boys at the after-school club, when he says strange things in front of her classmates and when he calls Sally's friend, Svend, her boyfriend. One day Sally really gets enough and decides to teach her dad a lesson, once and for all.
