SYNOPSIS

Inception meets Blade Runner in Boris Hansen's sci-fi fantasy thriller, set in a near future where you can travel into books as if they were physical realities - and change them from the inside.

In the third volume of Silent Worlds, three different parties battle to solve the mystery of the Book of Nightmares - a fiction that will soon open up in the Current, potentially giving unlimited power to whoever finds it first.

Both Olivia's team of fiction agents and serial killer, Victor, are participants in a fateful race to figure out what kind of book it is and what the explanation is for the glowing ghost, seemingly calling for help from within the fiction.
