

Ida-Marie Rendtorff
Emil Landgreen

The Heart of the Ice: The Dead Earth (3)

Isens hjerte: Den døde jord (3)

The Dead Earth is the third book in the exciting The Heart of the Ice fantasy series, aimed at children who are still a bit too young for traditional fantasy.

Ida-Marie Rendtorff is a brilliant Danish writer of fantasy for children and YA.

Emil Landgreen is a Danish illustrator, drummer and author, based in Copenhagen.

SYNOPSIS

Aira and Ulk has travelled to the land, Gulg, to find the vanished ice conjurers. But something is amiss. Even if Gulg is called the Country of Trees, not a single tree is left. And everyone is scared of the Prince who lives in the Black Castle with the high tower. Does he have anything to do with the vanished ice conjurers? Aira and Ulk are vulnerable to the piercing sun rays, so they have sleep during the day and search during the night. They are close to giving up, but then Aira finds a trace.

With beautiful illustrations by Emil Landgreen.

Original Language: Danish

Original Publisher: Forlaget Carlsen

Published: May, 2020

90 pages

Category: Children's Books

Sub-category: Middle-Grade

Genre: Fantasy

Themes: Courage, Friendship, Belonging/Identity

Territories Handled

World except: Danish