

Ida-Marie Rendtorff
Emil Landgreen

The Heart of the Ice: The Town that Melted (2)

Isens hjerte: Byen der smeltede (2)

The Town that Melted is the second book in the exciting The Heart of the Ice fantasy series, aimed at children who are still a bit too young for traditional fantasy.

Ida-Marie Rendtorff is a brilliant Danish writer of fantasy for children and YA.

Emil Landgreen is a Danish illustrator, drummer and author, based in Copenhagen.

SYNOPSIS

Ulk and Aira have arrived at the town, Tild, and they immediately realise that something has gone completely wrong. The town is melting and all the ice conjurers have disappeared. A dangerous investigation follows, as not everyone is interested in Aira and Ulk discovering what has happened to the ice conjurers. But together they persevere: together they are brave.

With beautiful illustrations by Emil Landgreen.

Original Language: Danish

Original Publisher: Forlaget Carlsen

Published: November, 2019

88 pages

Category: Children's Books

Sub-category: Middle-Grade

Genre: Fantasy

Themes: Courage, Friendship, Belonging/Identity

Film Rights: Babel-Bridge Literary Agency

Theatre Rights: Babel-Bridge Literary Agency

Territories Handled

World except: Danish