

Kristina Stoltz
Nana Torp

SYNOPSIS

Imagine if you could fly...

Vega is seven years old and her parents recently got divorced. It is carnival and Vega needs to figure out what to wear. The problem is she cannot concentrate on it – she is too busy thinking about her parents.

That is until she visits the old lady who lives downstairs – and Elsa lends her a helping hand. She used to be a circus artist and in her treasure chest, she keeps an old bird costume which used to belong to Alfonso, the dwarf, who is now passed away. The costume is made of real feathers and turns out to be magical. When Vega puts it on, she can suddenly fly...

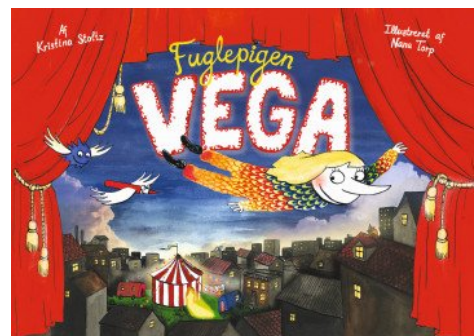

Vega - the Bird Girl

Fuglepigen Vega

A colourful new picture book (with graphic novel sections) about a little girl who learns to fly.

Kristina Stoltz is a Danish author who writes in a diverse range of genres and has received several awards and accolades for her work.

Nana Torp is an animator and illustrator with many children's books under her belt.

Original Language: Danish

Original Publisher: Gads Forlag

Published: August, 2022

80 pages

Category: Children's Books

Sub-category: Picture Books (5-8 years)

Genre: Realism

Themes: Courage, Belonging/Identity, Family, Imagination

Available material: English sample

Territories Handled

World Rights (Babel Bridge)