Shitty Kitty III

Møgmis: en rædsom rolling og en kattepine af dimensioner (3)

The third instalment in the hugely popular new graphic novel series, about a life and death pet war between a boy and his cat. A bestseller in Denmark and winner of several awards, the series is sold in six translation markets so far. There are currently five books planned in the series.

Sophie Souid is an award-winning Danish children's book author known for her great humorous writing.

Thomas Hjorthaab is a graduate of Serieskolan in Malmö from 2012 and a full-time illustrator.

SYNOPSIS

In the third book, teenage boy, Ziggie, and his vengeful, cunning cat, Shitty Kitty, continue to blame, fight and love to hate each other.

However, a small distraction enters the scene, as Ziggie's small cousin, Marie, comes to visit. Suddenly, someone wants to play with Shitty Kitty. She calls him Sweetie Pie and Farty Poopy and she is in general a terrible brat. In fact, here is for once something Shitty Kitty and Ziggie can agree on. Shitty Kitty puts his evil plans to eradicate Ziggie on hold and decides to teach Cousin Marie a lesson. But it does not go according to plan. Not at all, actually...

The first book, SHITTY KITTY: REVENGE IS SWEET AND REEKS OF FISH! won the Best Graphic Novel of the Year Award by The Copenhagen Libraries.

The second book is currently nominated for the Ping Prize.

Me & Milla: In the deep end

Mig og Mille: På dybt vand

The third instalment in the popular illustrated middle-grade series in the Tom Gates/Wimpy Kid vein, starring two feisty, funny girls. The series is so far acquired by Forlagid (Iceland), Il Battello a Vapore (Italy), Mangschou (Norway) and B. Wahlstroms (Sweden).

Anne Sofie Hammer is one of the most popular Danish children's books writers, and author of the bestselling series about Villads from Valby.

Sofie Lind Mesterton is an illustrator and visual storyteller, with a degree from the Royal Danish Art Academy's School for Design.

SYNOPSIS

It is the run-up to the summer break and the sun burns down on Milla and Milla. It can be really hard to come up with good ideas in this heat. Luckily, a new covering teacher steps into the class room - and that is something that can get their summer-lazy brains kickstarted again! Of course they need to check if the covering teacher can deal with a bit of fun and games.

At the same time, the two girls realise that summer vacation doesn't just mean that they are off school - it also means that they are going to be on holiday in two different countries. Not an option! Luckily, Milla and Milla come up with a genius plan, involving Milla's big brother and his girlfriend, the dog Molly, a burger, a pair of binoculars, a skipping rope and a phone.

All set for the best summer holiday ever.

Holly (3) - Super Nerds, Bike Crashes and a Psycho Seldom Tiger

HOLLY (3) – Supernørder, cykelstyrt og en psykosjælden tiger

This is the third book in a funny and heart-warming series about friendships, heroism and a disability which turns into a super power that can help solve mysteries. The books are written as a series, but can be read independently of one another. The first book won the "Tween Book of the Year Award 2022" given by the Copenhagen Children's Book Libraries.

Pernille Bønløkke Toustrup studies at the Danish Manuscript School for Children's Literature.

Sophie Souid is an award-winning Danish children's book author known for her great humorous writing.

Holly's super hearing is brought into play when her older brother, Kian, lands in big trouble.

A psycho-seldom and very precious tiger figure from 1968 has disappeared from the super hero store, Hidden Heroes - and Kian gets the blame. But Kian has disappeared, just like the figure, and soon Holly and her two heroic friends, Magnus and Jose, are deeply entangled in a complex fraud case involving precious antiques and key players all over town. Someone has come up with a mean and profitable trick. But who? And why? The three friends need to investigate the world of the super nerds to solve the mystery and they need all their usual courage to do so.

The books about the hearing-impaired Holly touch upon the sense of feeling like an outsider, but also the strength in discovering that it can be an asset not to be like everyone else.

Kim Ace

Lucas O'Kult and Satan's VHS (1)

Lucas O'Kult og Satans VHS

The first instalment in a funny new horror series, aimed at 9+, by Kim Ace.

Kim Ace is an experienced musical actor, with an old dream of becoming a writer. Covid lockdown gave him the necessary breathing space to put pen to paper and nail an idea of his that was 13 years in the making.

SYNOPSIS

Lucas O'Kult moves to Stranglester with his mum and two siblings. They have inherited the grand father's house after he disappeared without a trace. One evening, they find a so-called VHS machine in the basement and watch a horror movie which is already in the machine. Immediately, horrible things start to happen in Stranglester. Things that bear an uncanny resemblance to what happens in the movie. The people in town start to suspect that Lucas and his family are behind it all, and Lucas needs to protect their name. But perhaps his family is actually more involved than they might even know themselves.

Along came a Dog with the Ferry

Der kom en hund med færgen

Along came a Dog with the Ferry is a funny, moving and original tale about friendship and courage – and about taking matters into your own hands.

Annie Bahnson (b. 1969) is a Danish author of realistic YA and funny and quirky MG.

SYNOPSIS

Ruth lives on a small island and there are only seven children in her class. She is the only girl and the others are hanging out in pairs, so she feels a bit left out. She'd love to be friends with Snorre, but he only dares to be her friend when Carl isn't around.

Instead Ruth spends her time collecting insects. But it's not quite the same, as having a good friend. Even if she names them all after people around her and goes to great lengths finding insects that fit the personality of the people in her life.

One day, a dog arrives, alone, with the ferry. A fantastic dog. And it wants to be Ruth's friend. The only challenge is that Ruth's mum hates animals. Oh, and of course there is the small problem that the dog must belong to someone else...

REVIEWS

"A sweet and warm story about having a difficult time, but finding solutions anyway and about learning to take matters into your own hands and stand up for yourself. A lovely book for dog friends with lots of island- and summer atmosphere. The book is illustrated with both vignettes of insects and funny drawings of Ruth and the sweet dog." – (Library Review – lektøruddataelse, Dansk Bibliotekscenter)

Münchhausen: the Baron's (almost) true tales

Münchhausen: Baronens (næsten) sande eventyr

A refreshing, funny new take on Baron von Münchhausen's tall tales, tweaked for the age group 6+, and colourfully illustrated.

Tore Leifer has written a wonderful new version of Baron von Münchhausen's fabulations.

Anja Gram is an experienced Danish illustrator.

SYNOPSIS

In this new book about Baron von Münchhausen's stories, he has been given a bunch of grandchildren (in reality he was childless) and is telling them stories in front of the fireplace. Thus the scene is set for children and childish souls to be mesmerized and entertained by stories of cannon ball travel, horses on church towers and deers with cherry trees growing out of their heads.

Cecilie Eken

Night Bloom

Natblomst

This White Raven 2022 novel is about longing and loss - and about the mysterious realm of nature, which can reveal itself even in the middle of a completely normal town.

Cecilie Eken is an award-winning author who writes with beauty and imagination in a language that encompasses both the every day and the poetical. Her works tackle the big themes of life: parents and children, friendship, love, and finding our place in the world and a sense of connectedness. She is currently nominated for the prestigious Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award.

SYNOPSIS

Mia has moved to a new town with her mother, her little brother and her stepdad. She has a new house and a new school and she hates it all and just wants to go back to her old life, where her dad and the dog, Matti, were a part of her daily life.

One day she runs off after an argument and hides in the deserted garden of one of the houses on her street. It turns out that it isn't all that deserted. But not only the magical tree in the garden holds a secret. Mia also has something she would like to hide...

Night Bloom is a story about loneliness, loss and friendship and not least about our relationship to the nature we are a part of. It is a stand-alone sequel to the bestselling novel, Silver Bloom, and can be read from 10 years up.

Nominated for Weekendavisen's Literature Award 2022:

"Night Bloom is a fantastical tale which combines tradition and renewal; reality and magic. Cecilie Eken draws on the literary inheritance from Hans Christian Andersen and at the same time addresses the current agenda of biodiversity and nurture of nature. The novel keeps its reader gripped in an effective plot which continues to surprise, while the linguistic register reaches from beautiful poetry to authentic dialogue in the mouth of a teenage girl under pressure. Eken steers clear of clichés by using subtle humour which never talks down to the reader. Night Bloom is a work of literature that offers up both challenges as well as solidarity."

Esther Wrestler and her Fearless Friend, Elaine Pain

Ester Lemlæster og hendes frygtløse veninde Alberte Smerte

A book about good friends, about finding the courage you didn't know you had - and about looking for a body in an inner city park.

Critically acclaimed author behind new fun MG series about two girls

SYNOPSIS

Esther lives with her mother, father and two little brothers in an apartment in inner city Copenhagen. Life is pretty much all good, except that Esther is tired of her name. It sounds so nice and polite - but unfortunately it only suits her too well. Unlike her best friend Elaine, Esther never dares to do anything dangerous or exciting.

But one day lightning strikes right outside Esther's window, and a brilliant idea comes to her mind: From now on, she is no longer nice Esther. She is Esther Wrestler!

Elaine – now called Elaine Pain – is completely up for it all. And she also has an idea for how the two cool girls should become famous throughout Denmark for their courage.

They just have to find a body, because as Elaine says: All good mysteries start with a body. And she also has a clear idea where to look for one ...

The book is the first volume in a new fun series for children by Jonas Kleinschmidt with illustrations by Lasse Bekker Weinreich. It can be read aloud to children aged 6 and up, and can be read from 8-10 years old.

Silver Bloom

Sølvblomst

Fantasy and the realistic everyday life meet in this novel about a boy who is made responsible for a magic plant girl with unpredictable powers.

Cecilie Eken is an award-winning author who writes with beauty and imagination in a language that encompasses both the every day and the poetical. Her works tackle the big themes of life: parents and children, friendship, love, and finding our place in the world and a sense of connectedness. She is currently nominated for the prestigious Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award.

SYNOPSIS

Jonas and his best friend, Simon, have a secret den in the big, overgrown garden on the other side of the woods. One day, Jonas spots the owner, an elderly lady, being taken away in an ambulance and she doesn't return. Her house with the many potted plants is empty and locked up. But it seems as if someone is still in there. Someone who needs help.

Silver Bloom has been a hit with readers since it came out in 2002. It is an atmospheric and poetic tale about friendship, change and the magical power of nature and it is the prequel to the new standalone novel, Night Bloom, published for the first time in 2021. The book can be read from 10 years up.

REVIEWS

Tales from the Sky: Science Stories for Children

Hvad himlen kan fortælle os: videnskabshistorier for børn

In the tradition of Sophie's World, this book offers insight into a topic that is normally not easily accessible to children. Sold in translation to 11 languages at this point.

Gertrude Kiel is a Danish author of international caliber, who writes engagingly about big universal topics.

Gunvor Rasmussen produces dreamily beautiful illustrations using water-colours.

SYNOPSIS

If there is one thing that children and scientists have in common, it is their curiosity. Curiosity about the world around us, our role in it and the meaning of it all.

William is nine years old and fed up. It is school holiday and his parents are away on work trips; he is deposited at his mad aunt's place and she has absolutely no clue about kids. But crazy aunt Gudrun knows a thing or two about science and the week at her place turns out to be filled with stories of exciting people, funny anecdotes and fascinating machines.

Shortlisted for „Wissensbuch des Jahres 2022“ (Knowledge Book of the Year) by Wissenschaft Magazine

REVIEWS

"From the pile (of knowledge books for children) especially one book stands out. It is Gertrude Kiel's science book, TALES FROM THE SKY (...) A boy called William has to spend a week at his grumpy star-gazing aunt's place. During the course of those days, we are taken around the entire solar system and all the big names. For example Einstein." – Steffen Larsen (Politiken) (Bogforum Magazine)

Tove Wonders - a Long Story

Tove tænker - en lang historie

Moving, heartfelt and thought-provoking at the same time, this book combines four previously published short novels about Tove, which were rewritten to form a coherent narrative.

Mette Vedsø (b. 1968) studied chemistry and biotechnology, then trained at the Writer's School for Children's Literature. Since 2010, she has written several critically acclaimed children's books, including picture books and tween novels. Her work is suffused with an implicit understanding for children, especially the slightly displaced ones with big hearts – her observations and writing are moving, subtle and poetic.

SYNOPSIS

There's enough to think about in Tove's life!

There's Kuk who is 16 and Kioko from the island of Fyn.

There is cool uncle Don in London and nasty Elvira who has the class in her iron grip.

There is Lulu from Aarhus, who has changed way too much since last summer.

And what about odd cousin, Frank?

Luckily, there is also Gudrun and then there is of course athletics and music and crazy cakes and perhaps Tove will turn vegetarian?

Over a period of a year, you are invited into Tove's life with school and family, and on trips to Sweden, London and Aarhus (but not Madagascar!).
