At the same time, the two girls realise that summer vacation doesn't just mean that they are off school - it also means that they are going to be on holiday in two different countries. Not an option! Instead Ruth spends her time collecting insects. But it's not quite the same, as having a good friend. Even if she names them all after people around her and goes to great lengths finding insects that fit the personality of the people in her life.

One day, a dog arrives, alone, with the ferry. A fantastic dog. And it wants to be Ruth's friend. The only challenge is that Ruth's mum hates animals. Oh, and of course there is the small problem that the dog must belong to someone else...

Night Bloom

Natblomst

This White Raven 2022 novel is about longing and loss - and about the mysterious realm of nature, which can reveal itself even in the middle of a completely normal town.

Cecilie Eken is an award-winning author who writes with beauty and imagination in a language that encompasses both the every day and the poetical. Her works tackle the big themes of life: parents and children, friendship, love, and finding our place in the world and a sense of connectedness. She was nominated for the prestigious Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award in 2023, 2024 and 2025.

SYNOPSIS

Mia has moved to a new town with her mother, her little brother and her stepdad. She has a new house and a new school and she hates it all and just wants to go back to her old life, where her dad and the dog, Matti, were a part of her daily life.

One day she runs off after an argument and hides in the deserted garden of one of the houses on her street. It turns out that it isn't all that deserted. But not only the magical tree in the garden holds a secret. Mia also has something she would like to hide...

Night Bloom is a story about loneliness, loss and friendship and not least about our relationship to the nature we are a part of. It is a stand-alone sequel to the bestselling novel, Silver Bloom, and can be read from 10 years up.

Nominated for Weekendavisen's Literature Award 2022:

"Night Bloom is a fantastical tale which combines tradition and renewal; reality and magic. Cecilie Eken draws on the literary inheritance from Hans Christian Andersen and at the same time addresses the current agenda of biodiversity and nurture of nature. The novel keeps its reader gripped in an effective plot which continues to surprise, while the linguistic register reaches from beautiful poetry to authentic dialogue in the mouth of a teenage girl under pressure. Eken steers clear of clichés by using subtle humour which never talks down to the reader. Night Bloom is a work of literature that offers up both challenges as well as solidarity."

Tove Wonders - a Long Story

Tove tænker - en lang historie

Moving, heartfelt and thought-provoking at the same time, this book combines four previously published short novels about Tove, which were rewritten to form a coherent narrative.

Mette Vedsø (b. 1968) studied chemistry and biotechnology, then trained at the Writer's School for Children's Literature. Since 2010, she has written several critically acclaimed children's books, including picture books and tween novels. Her work is suffused with an implicit understanding for children, especially the slightly displaced ones with big hearts – her observations and writing are moving, subtle and poetic.

SYNOPSIS

There's enough to think about in Tove's life!

There's Kuk who is 16 and Kioko from the island of Fyn.

There is cool uncle Don in London and nasty Elvira who has the class in her iron grip.

There is Lulu from Aarhus, who has changed way too much since last summer.

And what about odd cousin, Frank?

Luckily, there is also Gudrun and then there is of course athletics and music and crazy cakes and perhaps Tove will turn vegetarian?

Over a period of a year, you are invited into Tove's life with school and family, and on trips to Sweden, London and Aarhus (but not Madagascar!).
