Why don't We just Plant a lot of Trees? and other good Climate Questions from Children

Hvorfor planter vi ikke bare en masse træer? og andre gode klimaspørgsmål fra børn

The mantra in this new optimistic climate book is "The more we know, the stronger we are". Climate journalist, Nina Bendixen, and child psychologist, Margrethe Brun Hansen, meet children age 9+ at their level and answer some of the big important questions that a lot of children concern themselves with.

Margrethe Brun Hansen is a psychologist with a speciality in child psychology. She is the author of several bestselling books and is a popular lecturer. On top of that, she is often interviewed for print media and has appeared on television on many occasions.

Nina Bendixen is a weather presenter on Danish national television and has her own radio program called "Crazy about Climate". She creates entertaining workshops for schools on climate topics and is "the climate nerd" on the national children's newspaper, Børneavisen.

SYNOPSIS

Nina Bendixen and Margrethe Brun Hansen calm out minds, helping us understand that Earth and nature are actually tough and survived some crazy events throughout history, coupled with the fact that a lot of climate measures are in place that will help us going forward.

They also answer a lot of questions that children posed themselves:

- Why don't we just plant a lot of trees?
- Why does CO2 exist if it is so bad?
- What happens with the sea, when it gets warmer?
- Why is a cow fart extra bad for the climate?
- Will it be possible to move to Mars?

Astronaut Training, Weightlessness and Giant Lightning

Astronauttræning, vægtløshed og kæmpelyn

A super exciting first-hand description of his experiences in space from Andreas Mogensen, ghost-written by Thomas Brunstrøm. Part of Carlsen's popular non-fiction series, Er du rigtig klog?

Andreas Mogensen (b. 1976) works as an astronaut for the European Space Agency, ESA. He was in Space for the first time in 2015 and is currently on a mission the last 6 months, back again February 2024.

Thomas Brunstrøm is a bestselling author, freelance journalist, film critic and podcast host - and real-life dad to Sally and Eddie.

SYNOPSIS

Andreas Mogensen tells us about what it feels like to be chosen as astronaut among 10000 others. How it feels to be completely weightless and suddenly stand on the ceiling. How nervewrecking it is to train with the robot arm which has to catch your supplies in space so they don't float away. And how it feels to look down at earth from space and understand how important and precious our planet is and how silly it is to not look after it properly.

Pernille Thomsen

The Mental Health of Children

Børns mentale sundhed

More and more children and young people experience a nervous system on overdrive. They have a belly ache, sleep poorly, find it difficult to breathe and perhaps don't feel like going to school. This book gives an accessible explanation for the physiological marks that a stressed nervous system leaves on the body. There is an emphasis on children with anxiety, autism and ADHD and on how the adults surrounding the child can calm the overheated soul of the child.

Pernille Thomsen (b. 1967) is a socialpediatric physiotherapist with a master in health pedagogic.

SYNOPSIS

Hippocampus – which means seahorse in Greek – is one of the central places in the brain, among others responsible for emotional memory and regulation. If children and young people are faced with stress over time, the seahorse (hippocampus) starts to work poorly and in the worst cases, it shrinks. By reducing the pressure on the nervous system, and by making use of for example physical activity, it can start to grow again.

The book is addressed at parents, teachers, pedagogical staff, nurseesses, ergotherapists, social workers, doctors, psychologists and others who would like an insight into what a nervous system on overdrive does to a child.

Goddesses - the Strong Women from the Myths

Gudinder - myternes stærke kvinder

A new stunning book about goddesses and other mythical women from around the world.

Bodil Bang Heinemeier (b. 1982) is based in Copenhagen, Denmark and works as a freelance illustrator with a background in animation.

SYNOPSIS

Myths about powerful goddesses have existed since the beginning of time. They roam in the kingdom of death and at the edge of the cosmos. They have power over death, are the sources of life and they can change the turn of time. What you never must do is to agitate her: for she has the power to start a storm, turn off the sun or dry out the earth if she become angry.

In this book, you will learn about 40 of the most intriguing ones, divided into the categories: Earth, Fire, Water, Air, War and Death. And spanning a wide number of geographies.

Read about: Nu Gua from China, Baba Yaga from Russia, Amaterasu from Japan, Aloja from Catalonia, Mabba Mwana Waresa from South Africa, Nut from Egypt, Kali from India, Loviatar from Finland and of course some of the more widely known Greek and Nordic goddesses, like Persephone and Freya.

SYNOPSIS

In the book, we follow a small child during its day at kindergarten. We meet all the friends of the child and their differences and similarities both on the outside and on the inside are highlighted. At the end of the book is a mirror that invites conversation about differences, community and tolerance.

The aim is to point to the fact that children have many more things in common than differences and in this way, new relations are encouraged and bullying is prevented.

The book is written by psychologist, Ina Victoria Haller, and is illustrated by Lea Letén, the duo behind the bestseller, The Little Book about Big Emotions.

Hans Christian Andersen - a life of ups and downs and lots of adventure

Hans Christian Andersen - et liv med modgang, medgang og en masse eventyr

A new exciting biography about Hans Christian Andersen for children aged 6+ by the successful author/illustrator duo Fupz and Kjær (see The Children's Bible).

Kim Fupz Aakeson is an award-winning, best-selling writer of children's books.

Signe Kjær is a Danish illustrator of books and magazines.

SYNOPSIS

Hans Christian Andersen was a master storyteller! We all know the fairy tales about the Ugly Duckling, the Emperor's New Cloths and Clumsy Hans. But did you know that Hans Christian Andersen actually wanted to be an actor? Or that he had a teacher who called him a toilet poet? Or that he never went travelling without a long rope?

Hans Christian Andersen had a lot of tales to tell, but there is also quite a lot to be told about him.

Head Rack

Hovedbrud

In this accessible non-fiction title for 12+, you get both a philosophical and a scientific explanation for things in our world that can be hard to grasp.

Johan Olsen (b. 1969) is a biologist, ph.d. in protein crystallography and researcher at Copenhagen University. He is a brilliant communicator of scientific topics for the younger target groups.

Vincent F. Hendricks (b. 1970) is a dr.phil, ph.d. and professor in formal philosophy at Copenhagen University. He is the author of a number of books and has won several prizes for his research.

SYNOPSIS

The world can sometimes feel like a gigantic attic space where the belongings of several generations have piled up and been stored. It is virtually impossible to find your way around it. That's why you have art, philosophy and natural science: to create an overview of the big storage space of the universe.

Biologist, Johan Olsen, and Professor of Philosophy, Vincent F. Hendricks have joined forces in this book to attempt to answer questions about e.g. climate, trust, love, errors, the sky and knowledge – and of course also the classic question: “Who am I?”. Some of the answers are relatively easy, others are not, but that's because even the simplest questions still create an infinite head rack for researchers.

Yes, and you will also learn how big infinity is in the book.

Brilliantly illustrated by Rikke Bisgaard.

Drømmejungen

Never before have so many people battled with sleep issues and the problem extends to our children and young people too who struggle to process the day's experiences and fall asleep seamlessly.

Medical doctor and clinical hypnotist, Anne Knakkegaard, uses her specialised knowledge to create bedtime books based on soothing hypnosis techniques.

Architect, Julie Dam, uses her full artistic palette to create the sweet illustrations in bedtime story books

SYNOPSIS

Through a series of stories, the child is encouraged to help the animals in the Jungle Dreams to find peace, so that both the child and the animals can fall asleep.

There are many reasons why the animal children have difficulty sleeping. The sloth, Susan, worries and ponders. The parrot, Petra, talks too much and isn't tired at all. The tapir, Tom, has a tummy ache and Lisa the Leafcutter Ant is afraid of the dark. Hank, the Howler Monkey has his head full of busy thoughts and Jason the Jaguar is struggling with growing pains.

The six stories in the Jungle Dreams are carefully developed and written so that the child can find help to deal with the most common problems connected with falling asleep.

In addition to the bedtime stories, the book offers hands-on advice and information on sleep, as well as tips on how to create the right atmosphere when reading aloud. The book is aimed at families with children aged 4-10 years.

In the home-market, the Jungle Dreams is available in App Store and Google Play where the stories can be played with soothing jungle music that continues after the story is over.

REVIEWS

"'Jungle Dreams' are stories on the children's premises combined with great professional ballast. These are stories that are easily accessible. Stories that normalize and acknowledge children's reactions at bedtime, and which in a simple way help the children to deal with difficult thoughts, feelings and bodily sensations. The stories help the children to provide self-care and master pondering at bedtime. Drawings and illustrations are beautiful." – Annette

The Little Book of Big Emotions

Den lille bog om store følelser

A series of books by child psychologist, Ina Victoria Haller, and illustrator, Lea Letén, providing parents with valuable tools for encouraging empathy, mindfulness and interest in language in their little ones.

Ina Victoria Haller offers a series of books that turn reading with children into a fun and educational activity.

Lea Letén has a wonderfully recognisable style and is a popular illustrator of children's books.

SYNOPSIS

The emotional development of children needs to be supported and guided in a similar way to linguistic and motoric development. The role of the adult is to help the child understand and regulate emotions and this book provides a helping hand in how to go about this important task. This is done by looking at an active day in a fictitious family

Pelle, Ronja and their parents are going to Sophie's birthday. We follow the family throughout the day and experience all the feelings that arise in the encounter with other adults and children. The book includes suggestions for conversations and play, enabling the child to address the emotions actively. It is written by a child psychologist in collaboration with two children's NGOs in connection with the project "Block Bullying."

Look up! UFOs exist.

Kig op! Der findes UFOer.

A thought-provoking non-fiction book for 8+, which sparks the imagination and curiosity about what is going on out there in space. It also tells the story of the boy, Frederik, who inherits his father's old papers with notes on all the most noticeable UFO-observations.

Frederik Dirks Gottlieb is a Danish podcaster, journalist, film producer, radio & TV host and now also author of a children's book about one of his greatest passions, UFOs.

SYNOPSIS

Look up! UFOs exist is the story about the most notorious UFO observations from around the world and at the same time, it is a thought-provoking story for children about the need to look up in order to understand who we are and to open up to thoughts about what is going on outside of our own planet.

The author of the book, Frederik Dirks Gottlieb, had a father who was a member of a local UFO club in Denmark in the 50s. When he passed away, he left his notes and newspaper clippings and Frederik started reading them. That eventually became the very popular pod-cast, co-hosted with astrophysicist, Anja C Andersen, "Flying Saucer", which now also exists in English.

In the book, Frederik Dirks Gottlieb tells us about some of the most incredible observations from around the world. E.g. the pilot, Kenneth Arnold, who observed nine flying objects with a speed of 2700 km/h from his plane. Or the Danish policeman, Evald Hansen, who was blinded by a UFO in his car.

The book is aimed at children and their parents – and is suitable for reading aloud and for conversations where there is space to let the thoughts wander together.

Monsters - Beastly Creatures with Big Emotions

Monstre - Stygge skabninger med store følelser

Emotions explained through monsters in colourful new book for 6-9 year-olds.

Shane Brox (b. 1968) is an author and multi-media artist with more than 20 creative books under his belt.

SYNOPSIS

Welcome to the world of monsters!

In this book, you will meet 12 creatures whose roots go back a long time. Some of them are more than 2000 years old. Back then, monsters were a natural part of our reality. They gave us a language and helped us to understand some of the emotions that dominated our everyday life.

Feelings like anger, fear, sorrow and glee are all real, even the uncomfortable ones. And space should be given to all of them, as it allows us to show how we really feel.

Even if most of us don't believe in vampires and dragons nowadays, we still create monsters when we don't talk about our feelings. Then we create inner monsters. When we are hiding things, monster-large emotions develop in us and between people – just like in the old days.

If we are honest and talk about our emotions, they are easier to understand and accept and the chance of us being able to let go of them increases.

Meet Mare – the monster of fear, Blemmya – the monster of sadness, Basilisk – the monster of insecurity and Krake – the monster of love.

This book is based on an exhibition – Monsters: Nasty Creatures with Big Emotions - which took place in the ruins underneath Christiansborg.

Lars Henrik Aagaard is a science journalist at daily newspaper, Berlingske Tidende, and author of several popular books about science.

SYNOPSIS

A golf ball shot on the moon and the world's biggest floating landfill. Those are some of the craziest things man has done in space.

You can read about it in Space: the Book of Records where you will find out about the highest, most dangerous, heaviest, quickest and weirdest records made in space.

Did you e.g. know that if you took all the sand from all the beaches in the whole world and collected them in one pile, there would still be more stars in the universe than there are sand grains? Or that you currently move 100.000 km/h because of Earth's rotation around the Sun and around itself? Or that it rains with gasoline on Saturn's moon, Titan?
