An autobiographical Danish graphic novel, which is published in the English-language markets by SelfMadeHero.

Anne-Mette Kærulff Lorentzen is an architect, LGBT activist and author of an outstanding graphic novel about coming out.

SYNOPSIS

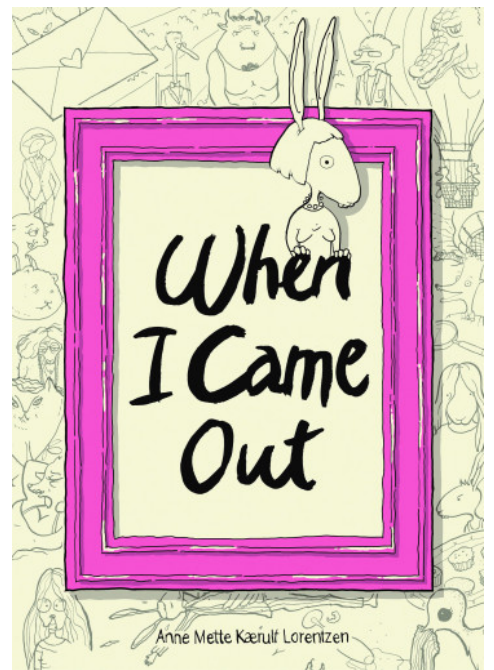

Forty-something Louise is married to Peter, with whom she has four children. They live in a big house, and on paper everything looks fantastic. "It was my recent good fortune to be introduced to the work of John Kenn Mortensen and my even greater fortune to be privileged to publish this work — by turns, playful, funny, wicked, stunningly imaginative, and, of course, masterfully rendered, like a combination of Edward Gorey and Bernie Wrightson, but every bit his own man." – Gary Groth (Publisher of Fantagraphics)
